NORWOOD HIGH SC

TWO roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I–
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Students privileged to study under teacher of Desirable attributes in teachers necessarily vary with the viewpoint of the critic. Students prize a ready wit, an open ear, willing cooperation, and, above all, unquestionable integrity. Schools demand a love of knowledge and a desire to share it. Every critic admires the teachers' sincerity and dedication in serving others.

We sincerely appreciate the entire faculty. In singling out the one member who for many years advised the SILHOUETTE we wish to pay tribute to all. With deep gratitude and warm affection we dedicate this SILHOUETTE to Miss Catherine Morrison.

The wage of $3.00 for a regular meeting is merely the interest on the principal Norwood owes its Board of Education. Viewing education from the desk of business, commerce, and industry, five Norwood men guide its educational future. Advising Brooks Parsons, Superintendent of Norwood Schools, is the principal function of these men, the Board of Education.

Under President T. W. Gabe the Board approves all school financing and planning in monthly meetings. New teachers, curricula, and activities are discussed from the standpoint of both the professional educator and the community. Members are elected for four-year terms, running on a non-partisan ballot, representing only the citizens of Norwood.

Through Board action, a cheerful teachers' lounge, efficient administration offices, and a "student-in-the-round" counselors' office are now part of the N.H.S. floorplan. This summer the Board also renovated the locker rooms and offices in the fieldhouse to give Norwood a modern physical plant.

Hustling, bustling, mostly worrying, are five harried faculty members known collectively as "the powers that be." Head of the Norwood High School power structure is Albert Geselbracht, principal, who supervises the teaching staff and directs school public relations. Often seen meting punishment to wayward Indians, assistant principal Lowell Anderson voices administration views as advisor to Student Council. Assistant principal Elton Kistler, rarely seen in the main building, supervises the Vocational School and the evening classes. All plans for student activities must receive an O.K. from the coordinator, Miss Nell Griffin. Through recent Student Council action these four represent the administration on the Student Affairs Committee.

The senior's best friend is his counselor, Miss Florence Nolte, who advises him on colleges, scholarships, and employment. Five other counselors, one for each grade school, follow students from seventh grade through their upperclass years.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To promote the ideals of scholarship, leadership, service, and character, the Norwood High School administration gave birth to the 912th chapter of National Honor Society, now mentored by Miss Mariel Sayre. N.H.S.'s active chapter, founded in 1929, revived the awarding of scholastic banners to homerooms with highest term grades in their class.

SILHOUETTE

In a flurry of red-inked copy and grease-marked pictures the 1965 SILHOUETTE left room 104½ in mid-March. The finished product of chaotic photo days, hurried copy, and top secret plans is now open to inspection, praise, and criticism.

Having squeezed out an extra dollar from the student body, the staff hopes the subscribers are satisfied with the return on their investment. The black and white printing and engraving is accented by the full page color picture, a major item in the budget. In an effort to raise the quality of the SILHOUETTE, the size was increased to that common to other high schools.

Traditions were made and broken as the staff substituted a faculty selection of Most Outstanding Seniors for the class's choice of Senior Superlatives. Through the institution of directories for the faculty and the Class of 1965, these sections were covered more fully.

Both Miss Shirley Smith, publications advisor, and George Kaschak, business advisor, allowed the staff much free rein in preparing and editing the annual. Student effort created the 1965 SILHOUETTE to preserve student memories.

MIRROR

The purpose of the Norwood High School Mirror is to show a true reflection of Norwood High. The responsibility of the Mirror staff, composed of twenty members advised by Thomas Cahill, is to publish twenty-five issues, including two eight-page editions at Christmas and graduation.

Work on the Mirror begins in the summer when the new staff meets to plan its first disorganized issue. After a few experimental editions the new staff becomes the veteran staff which produces the first-class paper that Norwood High School deserves.

Although not so much in the public eye as the editorial staff, the Mirror's business staff is a very important part of the school paper organization. It is responsible for the writing and soliciting of ads which, along with the proceeds from a dance in the fall and the annual Ice Cream Social, finance the Mirror.

FRENCH CLUBS

Perhaps the most famous couple at Norwood is Pierre and Gertrude, the mascots of French Club. Pierre, a cat, and his mouse wife reside with their Mats and Kice on the fourth floor of N.H.S. Whenever a door opens by itself, Pierre or Gertrude is paying an invisible visit.

Money saved by the hard-working French Club members supports one unfortunate seven-year-old girl in Boulogne and an Algerian refugee's family of four in the south of France. Profits from the sale of school stationery and the Mardi Gras Dance are spent to benefit these charges, never French Club.

LATIN CLUBS

A comprehensive study of Latin declensions, conjugations, grammar, plus a study of Roman civilization, confronts the first-year Latin student.

The second year brings an awareness of Roman history and cultural heritage through the reading of Commentaries on the Gallic Wars by Julius Caesar and various ancient myths and fables.

A dance, the "Indian Stomp," and plans for a banquet for Latin students and alumni have highlighted the activity of the 1965 Norwood Romans.

This valuable experience coupled with classroom studies under Mrs. Myrtle Tharp and Mrs. Norva Wahlert prepares these juniors and seniors for a profitable vocation when licensed by the State of Ohio.

The lonely charges of Drake Memorial Hospital, Condon Elementary School, and the Orphanage of the Little Sisters of the Poor lit up when the cosmetologists fixed their hair. Their charity was financed by the sale of Surrey chocolate candies.

CUISINE CLUB

Just as Mother fills the house with good Christmas smells, Cuisine Club entices the Norwood "family" with the aromas of the faculty buffet. This meal is anticipated as one of the unexpected pleasures of teaching at N.H.S.

As hosts, the chefs display the professional speed, efficiency, and responsibility they have developed in the classroom and on the job. The boys cook a variety of meals as co-ops at Deaconess Hospital, the Netherland-Hilton Hotel, and the Hyde Park Country Club.

Every Wednesday afternoon as Randy Thompson presides over a business meeting, Robert Haines advises the group on their projects. Making money is a snap for the chefs; the world beats a path to their door to buy their cookies, marzipan, and other baked goods. One of these sales is exclusively for the faculty. With these proceeds these upperclassmen prepare a luncheon for their favorite teachers. Lucky!

BAND

As the cadence is beaten sharply on the rims of the drums, the Norwood High School Marching Band takes the field. All eyes turn to watch this army of toy soldiers as they snap into action. Leading the front ranks of this Indian regiment are the 1964-65 Majorettes.

When football war games are won, the musicians don the Norwood sweatshirts of the Pep Band. Pep, spelled "March of the Olympians," "I Want to Hold Your Hand," the Alma Mater. Dressed semiformally, the elite of the Band, the Orchestra, plays the score for the musical.

Although the school properly applauds the entire Band at the Spring Concert, anyone who has ever ogled the strutting majorettes, clapped along with the Pep Band, or stood up at the playing of the Alma Mater can thank J. R. Phillips and the musicians of Norwood High.

CHOIR

The calm, quiet swish of robes which announced the entrance of the Norwood High School Choir was a welcome sound to students. The blending and harmonizing of these select voices could render a varied selection of songs from jubilant spirituals to the reverent "Song of Democracy." Hard practice during class and sectional rehearsals directed by Patrick Ratchen has enabled the group to reach near perfection.

Singing at the various programs throughout the year—Thanksgiving, Christmas, Patriotic Assemblies and the Spring Concert—and providing for entertainment kept the Choir busy. Caroling at Christmas was added to the schedule this year.

Choir was involved in the annual sale of chocolate "Better Bars" which help finance the needed music. A contest for the singing salesman was won by Rick Sloan who sold 432 "Better Bars" including one to trumpeter Al Hirt.

NORWOOD PLAYERS

The Norwood Players strive to improve their acting techniques and theatrical knowledge by taking in live stage plays at the Shubert and the Taft, and reviewing movies. With Mrs. Lindsay Buchy, the students also discuss current radio and television.

PEP CLUB

High-spirited and high-pitched, but loud, the seventy screeching squaws of Pep Club backed the Indians' valiant efforts. Mrs. Dorothy Bruetting, faculty rah-rah, and Pat Lay, president, directed the sale of pennants, pins, and a pep rally.

INDIANETTES

"Mark time! March!" is heard each Friday at the practice after school. Headed by tri-captains, Cheryl Gabe, Betty Meranda and Janene Woeste, and advised by Miss Noel, the twenty-eight Indianettes perform at the half time of the Indians' basketball games. Red corduroy skirts and weskits with white blouses, gloves, and gym shoes compose their outfits.

"He's a pretty sly gazebo, he is."

"How I'd love you, if I loved you."

"Mister Craigin!"

Carousel

There is little left of Norwood's "Carousel" except for some pictures, programs, grease-paint stained shirts, and a few more names scribbled backstage.

But there was more, far more, than these or any other momentoes could capture. These sounds of "Carousel" cannot be engraved in the SILHOUETTE: the orchestra's first attempts at the score, the stage crew's backing a graduation bench into Julie's house, or Mrs. Buchy's football pep talk and handclasp before the performance. All these things will be with the cast or crew member forever. Whenever he hears a song from "Carousel" a warm feeling inside will remind him that he'll never walk alone.

"And we all had a real good time."

"My father would have bought me a pretty new dress, too. He was a barker in the carousel."

"You'll get no drinks or vittles till we get across the bay."

FOOTBALL

Co-Captains Mike Mastin and Bill Schlie led the hard-hitting tribe through a season sparked by two victories.

Despite a driving rain storm the tribe scalped Deer Park 16 to 12 in the second game of the year. A team effort characterized the Indians' destruction of Harrison by a score of 36 to 0.

Norwood contested each of the eight games which were lost; however, a failure to come up with crucial plays resulted in the defeats. The season finale saw 17 seniors play their last high school game.

A spirited "let's try harder" attitude was evidenced by 1964 gridiron Indians. The team, although it compiled a dismal record, always made a determined effort to win.

Post-season recognition came to several of the Indian warriors. The Hamilton County League All-Stars sported in their ranks Mike Mastin, a senior tackle. Other Indian warriors, Dick Chambers, John Green, Randy Reese, Bill Schlie, and Dick Sipes, received Honorable Mention.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Though registering only thrice in the win column, the Indians' scalps—Princeton, Harrison, and Glen Este—were fruits of hard-fought victories. Brandishing fine shooting from both the field and the charity line, the warring cagers were eclipsed by the Colerain Cardinals in triple overtime, though Norwood's 96 points was a Cincinnati high for losing causes.

Starting tribesmen from the tepee were seniors John Green and Dave Held, and juniors Pat Hines, Allen Hill, and Doug Eustice. Green added a 12.9 point average and a quiver full of rebounds to the Indians' buffalo hunting. Chief Bill Ripperger ranked Green as most improved cager. '65er Held heaved in the most markers, 34, in a tepee tantrum against Harrison.

Eustice, a bargain from Withrow, covered the hardwood hunting grounds like a tarantula while pushing in 12.2 points a game. Hines led the varsity in assists and tomahawking enemy passes. Highest field goal percentage goes to Hill, who together with Sam Combs tossed 210 points Norwood's way.

Bench-sitting braves Tom Stamper, Larry Ingram, Art Lykins, Jerry Lancaster, Jerry Borin, and Bob Durham stood tall when called upon to boost the first team. With a willing team, a competent staff, and a losing season Mr. Ripperger explained, "A team is only as good as its backing."

Another goal for Norwood.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

"Of course, I'm not satisfied with my season," pounded Coach Herb Gardner, "I never am!" But the reserves did add a healthy 10-8 record to the Indians' totem. High scoring by soph ace Mike Calhoun, who holds the single game record of 42 points, concluded playmaking by Wayne Roberts and Paul Neppes. Roberts also topped the Reserves in freethrow percentages while ball-stealing proved Joe Morgenroth best Indian defender. Their hustle and pressing defense should total amazing future varsity seasons.

Norwood's 1964 reserve baseballers, under the coaching of Lafe Miller, hit the fields determined to outdo the elder Indians. The young braves left an impressive first tally sheet of 6-1. Bright feathers in Norwood's headdress were the powerful pitching of Larry Potrafke and the .364 batting average of Randy Reese.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Tiniest tribe in the pigskin wigwam, the freshmen ate dirt in calisthentics to the cadence of coaches Richard Pardini and Herb Gardner. Lauded as the Most Improved Player was Danny Smith, freshman head cracker. Starting with a 4-2 season stripe on their wampum belt, the varsity footballers of '68 are off and jogging.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Hard board play by Pat Kelley and pin-point shooting and play-making by Jack Bouldin spurred the papoose cagers to a 12-4 slate. High stepping by Bob Laake for the jumps contributed to all-around team play on offense and defense that rated them the Hamilton County League champ's war bonnet, one feather being the 72 to 31 drubbing of Finneytown.

Justly proud of his scalp-hungry Indians, coach William Frazier attributed their reputation to a strong bench that decided many a contest.

N CLUB

Baptism of a Norwood athlete in the showers amidst mud, sweat, and broken eggs dedicates him to serve his school as a member of N Club, the organization that initiated support of the tax levy and gave N.H.S. the HCL all-star plaque.

With careful prodding by Donald Littman, the lettermen hosted the pep rallies at which a Taylor Yellowjacket was roasted over a bonfire and a crew of hairy-kneed cheerleaders kindled school spirit. A rollicking roundball battle with WSAI deejays swelled the Service and Scholarship Fund.

Row One: M. Mundy, J. Post, B. Corrado, Treasurer; J. Hamilton, W. Scotty, J. Goodman, S. Watson, C. Sherman, Secretary. Row Two: D. Cahall, T. Lee, G. Christy, D. Blackburn, D. Sipes, D. Horn.

WRESTLING

Veteran matmen of but one year, the N.H.S. varsity wrestlers returned in 1965 to rack up more losses than wins. However, under coach William Hoffeld's guidance the grapplers did down Sycamore, Woodward, and Colerain, local worthies.

Mike Mundy, undefeated 138-pounder, and Garry Scotty, league champ, were hailed as Norwood's Bargain City Kid and Willie Thall.

Row One: G. Brewer, D. Dinse, P. Hayes, R. Riley, J. Brockman, B. Boggess, T. Meinking. Row Two: J. Bowman, B. Monfort, F. Begley, D. Barnes, M. Mundy, J. Monhollen, S. Watson, G. Scotty. Row Three: G. Parks, K. Parks, D. Sipes, S. Davis, R. Dykes, B. Hyden, R. Reese, Mr. Hoffeld.

1964 CROSS COUNTRY

The varsity and reserve harriers outlasted even the hares this year. Paced by the phenomenal DeHos, the cross country team bested all comers in their four local meets.

Under returning coach Dutch Ludwig, the Indians hustled to a third in the Hamilton County Meet and a sixth in the district.

1964 GOLF

With a resounding "Fore!" seven Indian golfers, coached by Aaron Gerrard, started out the season totally inexperienced but shaped up into a mean-looking crew. The squad was composed of freshmen Bob Ostendarp, Larry Williams, and John Sterneberg; junior Ed Stone; seniors Charlie Moody, Jim Baird, and Barry Nichols.

Late in the season the Indians left their teepee for the H.C.L. Tournament at Winton Woods. Behind the shooting of Jim Baird and John Sterneberg the Norwoodites chalked up a fair fourth place.

Row One: J. Sterneberg, R. Ostendarp. Row Two: L. Williams, C. Moody, J. Baird.

Row One: B. Clarke, K. Fenker, R. Fields, O. Rose, P. Hayes, D. VanScyoc, J. Burch, D. Gates, J. Phelps. Row Two: J. Buquo, S. Rumford, E. Head, D. Eddingfield, G. Parks, K. Haubner, G. Christy, J. 1964 TRACK

Through their strong efforts under coach Donald Littman, Norwood High School's tracksters enjoyed a winning season. With a blood-curdling war whoop the Indians brought their tomahawk down sharply on six of nine opponents.

John DeHo, Norwood's fleet-footed miler, led the harriers at the H.C.L. relays in winning the mile and setting a new record in the distance medley. In the county meet Jack Fenwick put the twelve-pound shot for a new school record. Sophomore Ralph Bennett pole-vaulted over old school and league reserve records.

1964 VARSITY BASEBALL

During the 1964 baseball season the Norwood varsity nine made a gallant bid for the league championship. Mentored by Bill Frazier, the Indians entered the quarter-finals sporting an 11-4 season record. After winning the first two tournament games, the team was downed by Hamilton Taft, district champs of '62.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS IN "N" FORMATION: L. Haley, B. Dres, S. Boothe, C. Hall, M. Davidson, L. Luckey, Captain; K. Glab, B. Broughton, L. Lovell, C. Sherman.

CHEERLEADERS

"Indians, rah! Indians, rah! Rah, rah, Indians!" and a toe jump end nearly all school songs led by the Norwood cheerleaders. Laura Luckey, varsity captain, and Gloria Haschart, reserve captain, coordinated the two 1964-1965 cheerleading squads to spark enthusiasm in the crowd and cheer their teams on to victory.

Breaking tradition, the girls wore red slacks instead of the usual blue at football games. Brightening the basketball court were the varsity in red outfits and the reserve in blue. Manning megaphones, three letter-sweatered senior boys helped kindle school spirit.

FRESHMEN CHEERLEADERS: C. Geiser, Captain; S. Geselbracht, D. Haggis, J. Elstun, N. Nickson.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: G. Haschart, Captain; R. Smith, C. Pangburn, P. Anderson, S. Stamper.

A "Board" meeting?

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

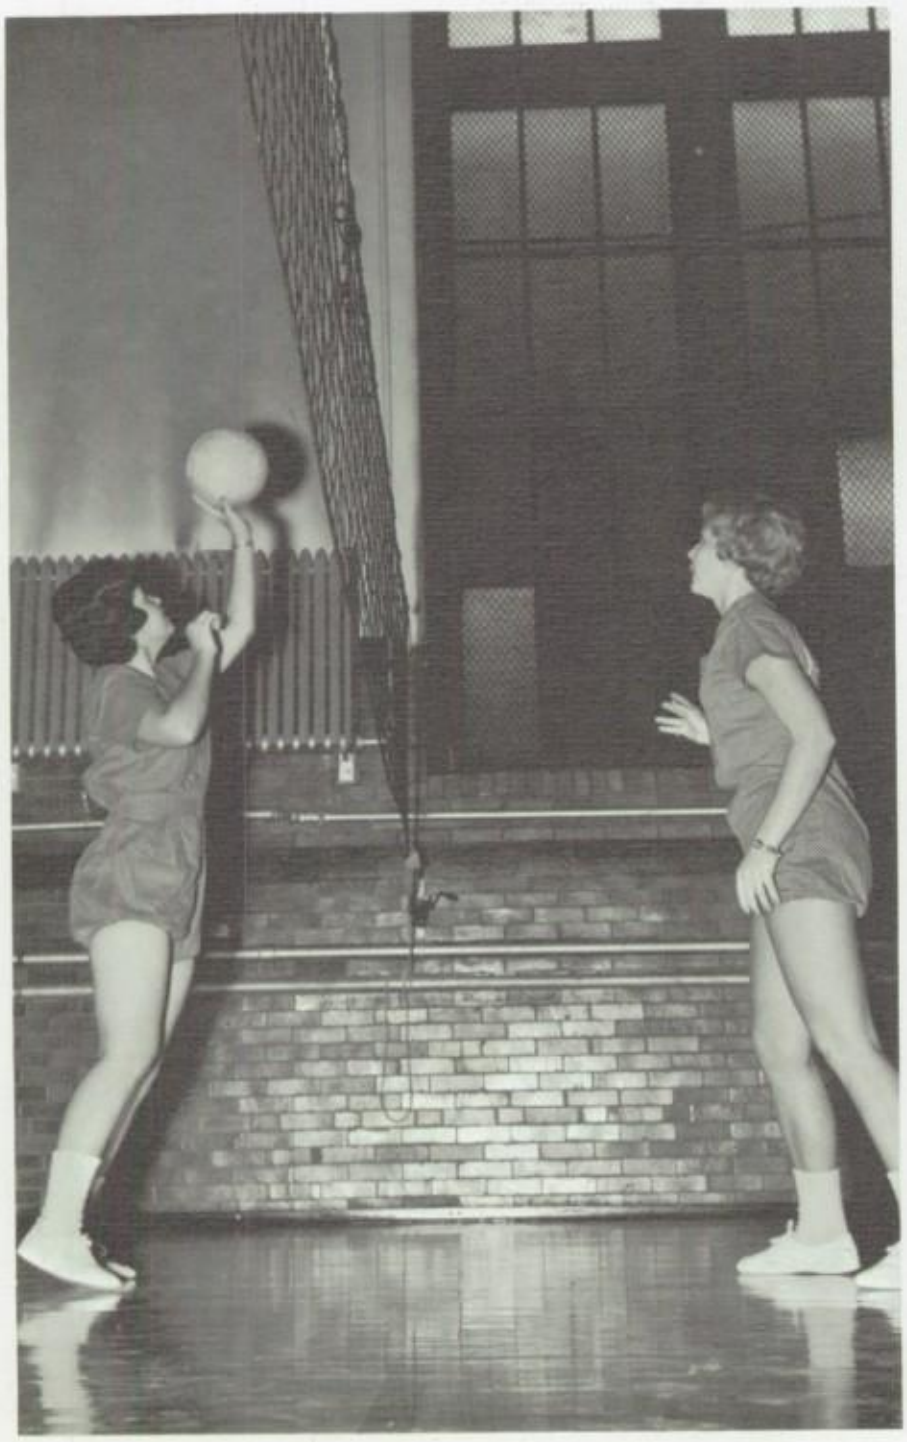
Girls' Athletic Association is the club for all sports-minded girls. Any girl interested in a G.A.A. sport may join. Chief among the G.A.A. sports are: archery, hockey, hiking, tennis, swimming, volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Another G.A.A. activity provides refreshments at the home football games. The concession stand is staffed by service-minded G.A.A. girls.

During Girls' Week, the association plays an important part by sponsoring an assembly to honor its outstanding members, the best of whom receive varsity "N's."

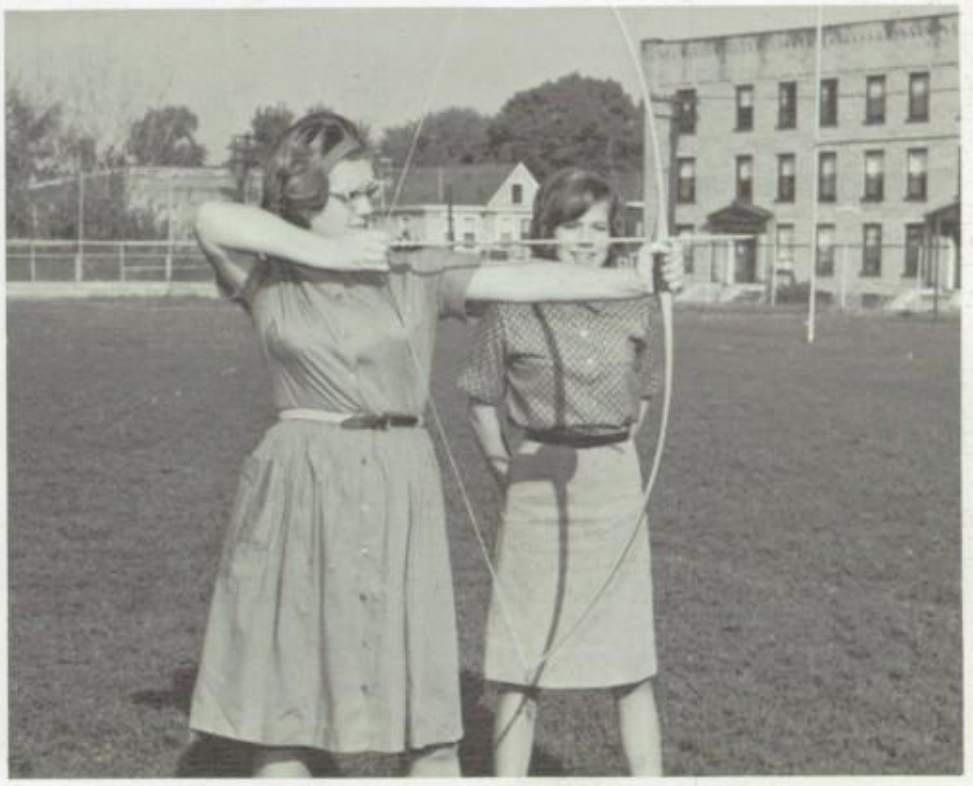
The "World Series"?

A balancing act.



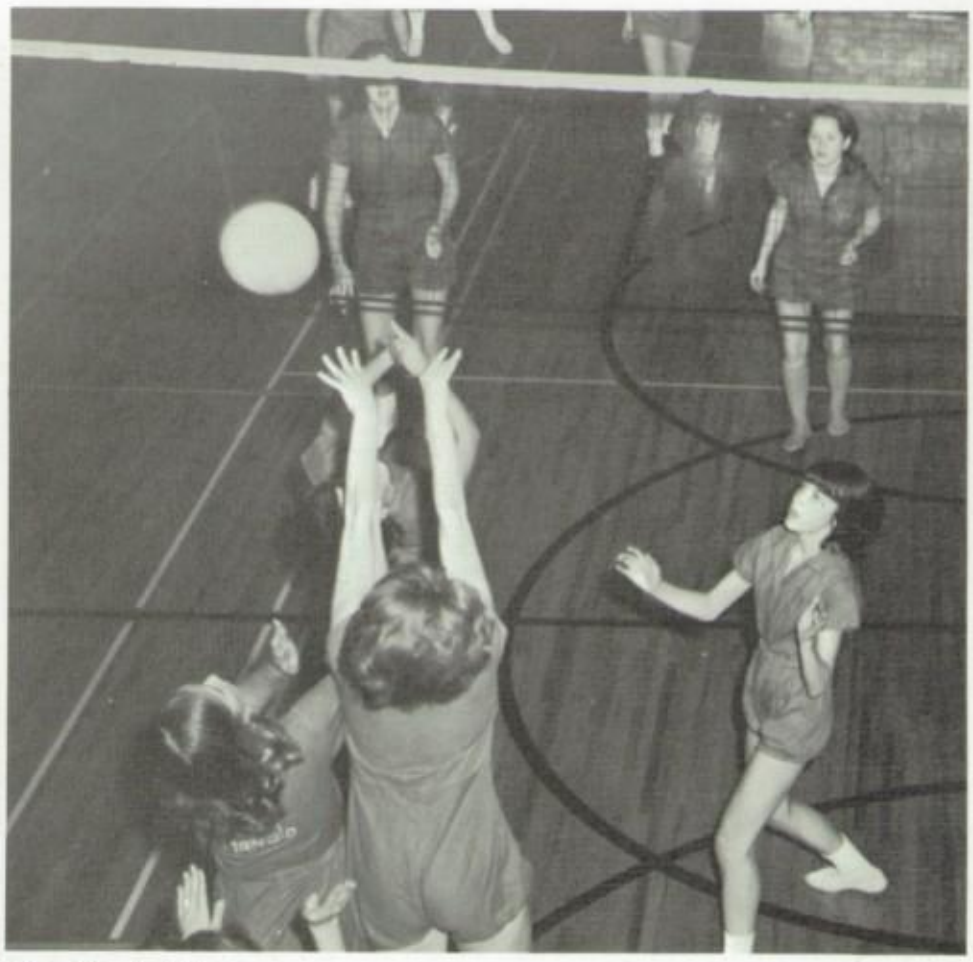
Norwood "Alpinists" call a halt.

Note that form!



G. A. A. keeps girls physically fit.

Moments before the plunge.



"No, it's mine!"

Hockey relays create excitement.

Return of the longbow.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: E. Burks, Secretary; C. Sherman, President; L. Haley, Treasurer; D. Chambers, Vice President.

The Class of 1965

"The underclassmen will remain seated while the seniors leave the auditorium." directed Albert Geselbracht, principal.

And deservedly so, think the seniors. Reflecting this class arrogance is the go-getiveness that has pervaded all its activities. A smashing shamrock sale paved the way for their profitable "Moonlight and Roses" Junior Prom. As juniors, they dragged the senior class of 1964 through the mud in a tug-o-war.

Turning up everywhere, seniors sparked somewhat lifeless organizations. Seniors provided Norwood with a first-class Mirror, and a larger SILHOUETTE. Growing up with the musicals, this year's seniors have provided the leads for all three productions. As varsity mainstays, the Class of 1965 led the charging Indians.

In the homerooms, the strength of any class, pride in '65 was alive. Senior girls from 204 routed sophomore cagers during Girls' Week. Coming from 312 was the 100% Mirror subscription. Senior girls scored high in table decorations produced by all-night kleenex puffing bees. Co-ops in 321 contributed the schools highest grade average.

Perhaps the class was tops because of its leaders, probably because their followers were also leaders. But from this impressive class the four officers above were elected after hectic but uproarious campaigns, a first for Norwood class elections.

The senior class of 1965, produced by the post war boom of 1946 and 1947, added over 330 names to the rolls of Norwood alumni.

Any member of this class who has proudly displayed the 1965 on his ring or the numerals on his shoulder can stand up and be counted as a member of the largest class ever to walk out of the commencement ceremonies of Norwood High School.

Seniors graduate as honored class of 1965.

OUR CROWN

Our day is here, the day
we've been waiting for.
We are on a new path, we are at a new door . . .
Yes, the door of the future is before us now.
High school days are over,
We have a new Crown.
It is a crown we can wear
As a college student, husband, or Wife.
"A crown of Success, the Crown of Life."

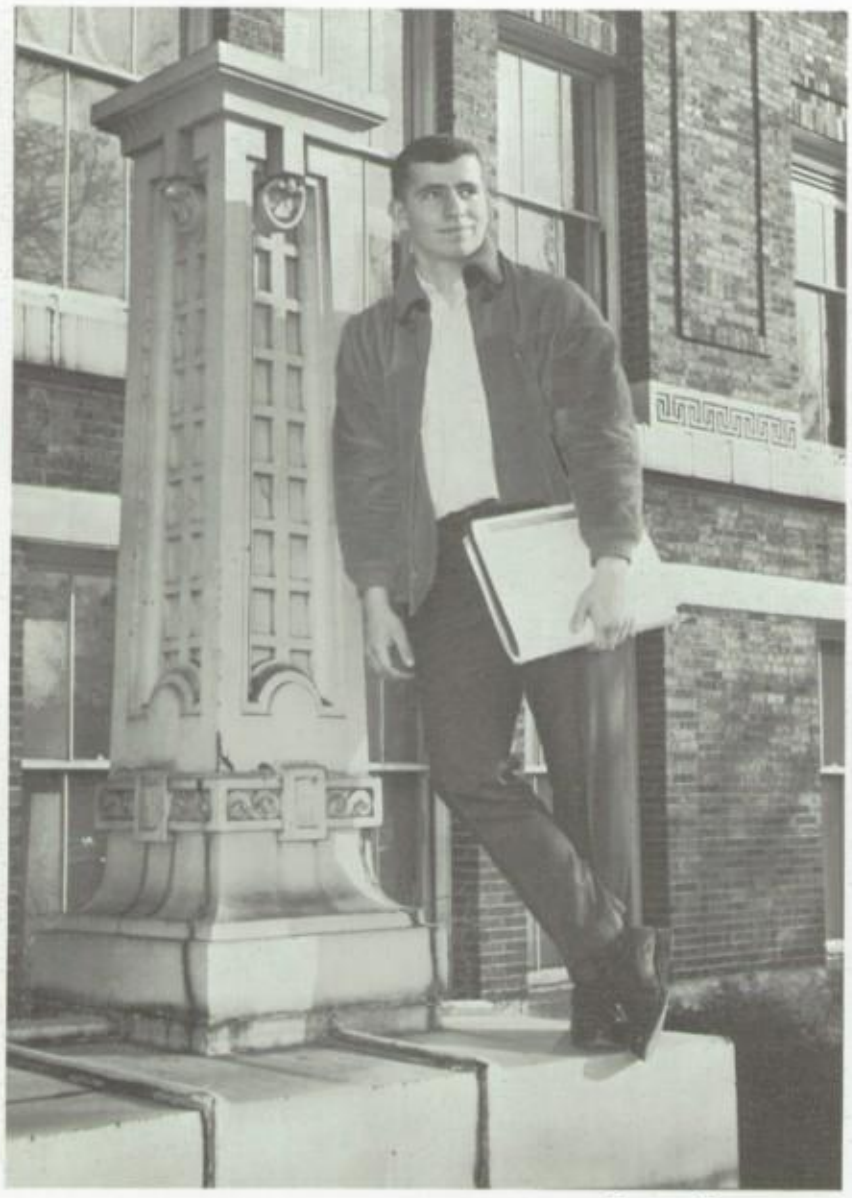
MOST OUTSTANDING SENIORS



DICK CHAMBERS

The election of Senior Superlatives had almost become a tradition. But the 1965 SILHOUETTE staff decided to honor instead those seniors who have accomplished much by using their own talents and skills. Not many students use all of their ability, though many try. These pages recognize six seniors, chosen by a faculty committee, who have given their all to better themselves, their class, their school, and their community.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

After six weeks of strenuous rehearsing the cast of the Senior Class Play should have felt confident on the big night. They weren't. Would the audience appreciate their efforts, or would their efforts be worth appreciating? The players' fears, though natural, proved unfounded. The audience went wild.

The huntress.

The critique.

Really we aren't crazy!

Powerful emotions.

Physchomotor drama.

A tired but satisfied cast and crew.

SIX STITCHES FOR EGO

Three seniors' time, talent enrich Norwood.

Several members of the Class of 1965 have contributed greatly to various aspects of student life. Because their talents have brought honor to the school, they are recognized here. Some of Pat Lynch's achievements at the easel received three of the five regional Hallmark Awards presented for the best art work in various fields. Who in Norwood High School has not thrilled to hear Cindy Costello perform at the piano? Without Betty Meranda's leadership qualities many successful school events such as the Junior-Senior Talent Show of 1965, Oklahoma!, and Six Stitches for Ego might have floundered.

Do you know?

If you never taste an alcoholic drink, you will never be an alcoholic.

God's message on strong drink from the Bible:

Don't look at it. Proverbs 23:31, 32

Don't serve or treat with it. Habakkuk 2:15

Don't seek poverty. Proverbs 21:17
Proverbs 23:20, 21

Don't be unwise (a fool). Isaiah 5:20-23
Proverbs 20:1, Proverbs 23:29-35
Isaiah 28:7, 8

Be a prince. Proverbs 31:4

Be responsible. Romans 14:21
Romans 13:13, Galatians 5:19-23
I Corinthians 6:9, 10 and 19,20
II Thessalonians 3:6

Taking one drink is not the cure for drunkenness—it is the CAUSE of it.
